Purchaser may not sell, assign, transfer or encumber this contract or any rights therein without the written consent of Seller.

Seller will not unreasonably withhold Seller's consent to the sale of timber nor to the assignment or transfer of contract rights upon the condition that the gross proceeds of said timber sale or contract assignment will be paid directly to Seller up to the satisfaction of the balance due on this contract.

10. Waiver.

Failure of Seller at any time to require performance of any provision of this contract shall not limit the right of the Seller to enforce the provisions, nor shall any waiver by Seller of any breach of any provision be a waiver of any succeeding breach of that provision or a waiver of that provision itself or any other provisions.

11. Costs and Attorney Fees

In the event suit or action is instituted to enforce any of the terms of this contract, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the other party such sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorneys' fees at trial or on appeal of such suit or action, in addition to all other sums provided by law.

If any party to this contract places it in the hands of an attorney for collection or enforcement of the covenants contained herein, as a consequence of a default, as defined herein, the party in default agrees to pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such attorney even though no suit or action is instituted, as a consequence of default.
