If default includes a default other than payments of money when due, then you must cure such other defaults as specified in paragraph (g)(2) by July 19.

i. The purchaser or any person claiming through the purchaser has the right to contest the forfeiture or to seek an extension of time to cure the default, or both. If you wish to exercise this right, you must file a summons and complaint on the seller or seller's agent or attorney before a declaration of forfeiture is recorded.

NO EXTENSION OF THE TIME FOR CURE CAN BE GRANTED FOR DEFAULTS THAT ARE A FAILURE TO PAY MONEY. However, you may not be in default if you have a claim against the seller that would release, discharge or excuse the default.

- j. You have a right to request a court to determine whether a public sale of the property should be ordered. A public sale may be ordered if the fair market value of the property substantially exceeds the sum of the debt owed under the contract and all liens on the property that have priority over the seller's interest. If you wish to request that a court make this determination, you must do so by filing a summons and complaint before a declaration of forfeiture is recorded. If you make such a request, the court is required to order you to deposit the anticipated sale costs with the clerk of the court.
- k. No other notice of default will be sent to you. The next notice that you receive will complete the forfeiture. If the Contract requires that notices be given, they will be mailed to the person at the below
