COMMUNITY PROPERTY AGREEMENT BOOK 136 PAGE 386

Leo Joseph Hrigora and Rose Marie Hrigora, referred to as husband and wife, agree: and desire to fix their respective rights and entitlements regarding each other's property.

Each party herewith acknowledges that whatever is accumulated during marriage is to be evenly divided among the spouses.

That whatever is accumulated during marriage by either spouse is subject to the community property system and is to be evenly divided among the spouses.

Each party herewith acknowledges the right to:

Share in each others estate upon death, whether by will, statutory right, statutory share, dower, curtesy, whether such right now exists by case law or by statute.

To the sharing in the increase in marital assets regarding separate property during marriage.

To sharing in any pension, profit sharing, government or military pension plan.
