Recitals.

IRA R. KITE and RHODA KITE were married on November 3, 1984. Throughout their marriage they have resided in the State of Washington, a community property state.

Certain property was acquired by the parties as a result of their personal and mutual efforts prior to their marriage and the parties desire to reaffirm the legal status of such property.

It is, therefore, agreed;

Agreement.

1. All of the properties, real and personal, now held of record in the name of either of the parties, shall be that party's separate properties. Exhibits A and B are a current breakdown of the separate properties of the parties.

2. Properties hereafter acquired as joint tenants, joint tenants with right of survivorship, tenants by the entirety or tenants in common are community property of the parties.

3. Property acquired after November 3, 1984, with rents, issues, income of, proceeds from, in exchange for or traceable to separate properties shall continue to be separate properties unless placed in the joint names of the parties as described in paragraph 2.

4. The property characterized as community property and any property acquired with rents, issues, income of, proceeds from, in exchange for or traceable to such community property shall retain its community property character unless placed in the separate name of a party.

5. It is not intended by this agreement to make any transfers of property between the parties, nor shall this agreement be construed for any purpose to effect any such transfers, but this agreement is executed solely for the purpose of recognizing as between the parties the type of ownership of the described properties.

6. The parties, on Apr. 2, 1984, entered into a Prenuptial Agreement. It is not the parties' intent to supersede that Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this agreement as of the date first written above.
