THIS MATTER having come on regularly for hearing this day and the court having considered the testimony of Ross R. Rakow, the records and files herein, and deeming itself fully advised in these premises, hereby makes and enters its following:

FINDINGS ON HEARING

LaRena D. Tol died testate on March 18, 1977, in Goldendale, Klickitat County, Washington, being at the time of her death a resident of said city, county and state, leaving estate subject to administration in Klickitat County and in Skamania County, some of which was her separate property and some of which was her share of the community property owned by her and John W. Tol, her husband.

Decedent's will was duly admitted to probate upon proper notice to all parties entitled thereto and John W. Tol was duly appointed and promptly qualified, serving thereafter as her personal representative, all according to the terms and provisions of her Last Will and Testament.

Notice of his appointment was duly given as required by law: notice to creditors was published; the state and federal tax due was promptly paid; all creditors filing claims in the estate were paid, as well as the costs of administration and expenses of last illness and burial, all as more fully shown by the petition on file herein.

LaRena D. Tol left her surviving husband and her son, Vern Peter Tol, as her sole and only heirs and made suitable provisions therefore in her Last Will and Testament.

The decedent named the Rainier National Bank as trustee to hold and disburse all of her estate for the benefit of John W. Tol and Vern Peter Tol. Rainier National Bank declined to act and John Tol proceeded to administer the estate until his death on the 16th day of April, 1989.

John Tol prepared and filed a final account and petition for distribution in October of 1977, but took no action to obtain an order approving the same. Thereafter, he continued to manage the affairs of the estate for the benefit of himself and Vern Peter Tol and the estate was never formally closed by an order as required by law.

Vern Peter Tol, petitioner herein, has sought the following order and has agreed that any and all irregularities in the management of the estate by his late father, if any, are waived.

All assets as set forth in the inventory on file herein should be disbursed and this estate is now ready to be closed.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

1. Vern Peter Tol has performed each and every act and duty required of him, and his accounting as such executor is hereby in all respects approved, confirmed and allowed.

2. All creditor's claims against the estate and all estate and inheritance taxes due and owing to the United States of America and the State of Washington have been paid, due and proper receipts in discharge of which are evidenced in the file.

3. All right, title and interest of every kind and nature and wheresoever situate in and to the property belonging to the Estate of LaRena D. Tol, as more fully described on the attached "Schedule A" be and the same is hereby distributed to Vern Peter Tol free and clear of any limitations or restrictions as otherwise set forth in the Last Will and Testament of the decedent, all conditions and qualifications therein having been fully met, including but not limited to, any property not now known or described, the said Vern Peter Tol being the sole remaining beneficiary of the decedent's will and the sole surviving heir of decedent.

4. A decree of final discharge shall forthwith enter herein upon the filing of a receipt of heir by the said Vern Peter Tol and this estate shall thereupon be forever closed.

DATED this 24 day of August, 1989.
