IV. AMENDMENTS, ETC.

4.1 Amendments. This agreement may be amended or revoked by written instrument executed and acknowledged by the spouses. No such amendment or revocation by mutual consent of the spouses shall become effective except by written revocation or amendment.

4.2 Effect of Divorce. Unless otherwise provided in the divorce decree or in the property settlement agreement, this agreement shall be revoked by any decree divorcing the spouses.

4.3 Effect of Incompetency. If prior to the death of either spouse, a legal guardian is appointed over the property of one of the spouses on account of incompetency, the legal guardian may join with the competent spouse in a petition to the court having jurisdiction over the guardianship proceedings for permission to enter into a modification or revocation of this agreement. Hearing on the petition shall be after giving such notice to all interested parties as may be ordered by the court. If, after the hearing, the court deems the proposed modification or revocation to be fair and equitable and affords reasonable protection towards all parties concerned, it may authorize the guardian to execute such modification or revocation on behalf of the incompetent spouse.

4.4 Effect of Domicile Change. Unless otherwise revoked or modified, this agreement shall remain in full force and effect regardless of the state of residence and/or domicile of the spouses at the time of the death of either or both.
