In the event Grantors fail to make all such payments when due, Beneficiary may, in addition to requiring Grantors to cure such default, require that Grantors thereafter pay to Beneficiary on a monthly basis 1/12th of the amount of such taxes and assessments which Beneficiary reasonably estimates wil be due and payable on the next following annual payment date which Beneficiary will hold in a regular interest-bearing savings account at a federally-insured financial institution and deliver to the tax collector within a reasonable time after those taxes or assessments become due. In the event that the estimates, plus the interest earned thereon, are not sufficient to pay the taxes or assessments, Grantors will immediately pay to beneficiary the amount of the deficiency so that taxes and assessments can be paid when due. The failure to pay taxes or assessments or to pay the estimates or the deficiency is a material default regardless of any other event of default.

3. Grantor will obtain from one or more responsible, licensed insurance companies and pay the premiums for and thereafter keep in full force and effect policies of (a) fire insurance, with extended coverage endorsement, in a coverage amount equal to the full replacement value for the residence, exclusive of foundations and (b) public liability and property damage insurance with reasonable deductible and coverage provisions. The fire insurance policy shall have such other tems, conditions and endorsements reasonably acceptable to Beneficiary, including a provision which requires at least 30 days advance written notice to Beneficiary before cancellation or a material change, and shall name Beneficiary as an additional insured. Grantor will give Beneficiary written notice of the occurrence of any event covered by insurance promptly after such occurrence. Grantor authorizes Beneficiary to participate with Grantor in any discussions with the fire insurance company as to payment of claims. It is agreed that all money received from claims on fire insurance will be used only for repair or replacement of damaged buildings and improvements or for prepayment of the financial obligatons secured by this trust deed.

4. Grantor will keep the residence, landscaping and driveway in reasonably good and functional condition and repair and free of debris. Grantor will perform all such work in a good and workmanlike manner using first class materials and will ensure that all lienable charges relating thereto are promptly paid. Grantor will not remove buildings or improvements now located on the real property or engage in substantial improvements or remodeling without Beneficiary's prior written consent; provided, however that Grantors may make substantial improvements or remodel without any additional consent as long as (a) Grantor have on deposit funds sufficient to pay for such work when payment is due and (b) the value and utility of the real property following completion of the work will equal or exceed its value and utility prior to such work.

5. Grantor will comply with all laws, regulations and orders applicable to the real property and its use and occupancy. Without limiting the foregoing, Grantor will not allow the real property to become a public or private nuisance or allow it to be used for any illegal activities or purpose whatsoever including, but not limited to, production, storage or disposal of controlled substances or hazardous wastes.

6. Grantor will pay when due all charges for all utilities services provided to the real property including er, garbage disposal, water, gas and electrical service.

7. Granter will allow Beneficiary to enter the real property and all buildings included therein at all reasonable times to inspect the property to verify compliance with the terms and conditions of this trust deed.

8. Grantor will indemnify, defend and hold Beneficiary harmless from and against all claims, loss, liability and expense, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, in any way arising from or related to Grantor's failure to comply with the foregoing covenants or Grantor's ownership, improvement or use of the real property. This indemnity will survive any conveyance of the real property to Beneficiary or any reconveyance of the real property by Trustee. In the event Grantor fails to pay taxes and assessments, insurance premiums and utilities costs or fails to comply with governmental regulations or to properly maintain the real property, Beneficiary may do so upon 30 days' advance notice to Grantor and any amount paid, plus interest thereon at the interest rate disclosed above from the date of disbursement, shall be part of the obligations secured by this trust deed.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. Grantor shall be in default without notice or demand under any one or e of the following circumstances:

1. Grantor fails to make any installment payment on the financial obligations secured by this trust deed

2. Grantor fails to obtain and maintain insurance coverage as required above or fails to pay when due taxes ents or any other charges which could result in a lien against the real property.

3. Grantor fails to comply with any non-finencial covenant.

4. Grantor conveys by sale, lease, mortgage, assignment or other direct or indirect conveyance or brance the real property or any significant part thereof or interest therein to any other person (including dividuals and organizations) without Beneficiary's prior written consent.

Grantor becomes the subject of insolvency proceedings.

In the event of Grantor's default, Beneficiary will send a written notice to Grantor and Grantor will have thirty (30) days to cure the default described in the notice. Lender is not obligated to send to Borrower a notice of t more than twice in any one year period. If Grantor fails so cure the default described in the notice within such thirty (30) day period, Beneficiary may, but shall not be obligated to, accelerate (i.e., make in and payable) all financial obligations secured by this trust deed and foreclose this trust deed by advertises sale or by judicial proceedings as a mortgage and may repossess and dispose of personal property as a part of that proceeding; provided, however, that if the default is of such a nature that cure cannot be completed within the 30-day period, then the 30-day period shall be extended as long as reasonably necessary as long as Grantors have ially com senced the curative action within that period and are proceeding diligently and steadily toward letion of such action
