4. Cont. There was a logging Truck with 4 or 5 cars behind it approaching me in the oncoming lane, therefore, I could not make the turn into the bus. I did start slowing it tried to go to the right side of my car, however, there wasn't enough room between my car & the guard rail. The driver's quick efforts to go to my right probably saved my life. Had I been hit squarely in the rear, I would likely have bounced into the oncoming traffic & been killed.
