REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST AGREEMENT

THIS TRUST AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 17 day of December, 1997, between James E. Severs as Trustor, and James E. Severs and James R. Severs as Co-Trustees.

The Trustor hereby establishes a Trust with the Trustee. The parties agree that the property in this Trust shall be held, managed, and distributed by the Trustee as follows:

I.

NAME OF TRUST

This Trust shall be identified as the James Severs Trust, u/t/d December 17, 1997.

II.

IDENTIFICATION OF BENEFICIARIES

The Trustor is a single, unmarried name and has no children. Trustor declares that the lifetime beneficiary of this Trust is James E. Severs, subject to the terms and conditions of this Trust. Upon Trustor's death, the beneficiaries are:

My nephew: James R. Severs
2900 N.E. Knott, Portland OR 97212
My nephew: Richard W. Severs
315 S.W. Attwell Road, Stevenson WA 98648
My brother &
sister-in-law: Parker and Luelladean Severs
307 Attwell Road, Stevenson WA 98648

III.

TRUST PROPERTY

Gary H. Martin, Stanislaus County Assessor
Date 5/8/98 Parcel # 27-2-4-1-604
600

The Trustor has transferred and delivered to this Trust property and other assets which are described in the attached Exhibit "A". Such titles and interests as the Trust has received or may hereafter acquire therein, and such other property as may hereafter be added to the Trust, shall be vested in the Trustee, for the uses and purposes and for and upon the terms and conditions and with the powers, which are hereinafter set forth. All property and assets transferred to this Trust shall be deemed to be owned by the Trustor. However, if property or assets of the Trust are removed from the Trust while the Trustor remains living and title is placed back into the name of the Trustor, the nature of title and ownership shall be established in a manner which is identical to that which existed immediately prior to the transfer of such property or assets to this Trust, unless the Trustor otherwise agrees in writing. All agreements relating to the voting rights of all stock owned by the Trustor and transferred to this Trust, shall remain in effect while such stock is owned by this Trust.

IV.

ADDITIONS TO TRUST

The Co-Trustees shall have the power to receive other property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, including life insurance policies, devised, bequeathed, granted, conveyed, assigned, or made payable to the Trust by Trustor or by any other person or persons which, upon acceptance by the Trustee or Successor Trustee, shall be added to and become a part of the Trust Estate and shall be subject to this Agreement.

V.

REVOCATION AND AMENDMENT

(A) Trustor reserves the right by written instrument signed by Trustor as Trustor and filed with any Trustee or Successor Trustee to revoke this Agreement at any time or to withdraw from the Trust Estate, all or any part of the assets, principal, and accumulated income of the Trust upon satisfying all sums due to the Trustee and Successor Trustee and indemnifying the Trustee and Successor Trustee to their reasonable satisfaction against liabilities lawfully incurred. In the administration of this Trust, the Trustor, Trustee, and Successor Trustee may borrow or loan funds in the name of this Trust and may encumber the assets of this Trust to secure indebtedness of this Trust.

(B) Trustor reserves the right to alter or amend this Agreement at any time, by written instrument signed by the Trustor and accepted by the Trustee or Successor Trustee.

(C) The rights of revocation, withdrawal, alteration, and amendment reserved by Trustor herein must be exercised solely by Trustor and may not be exercised by any other person, including without limitation, any agent, guardian, or conservator.

VI.

CO-TRUSTEES

(A) The Co-Trustees may act jointly or severally. The act of either Co-Trustee is sufficient in all matters to bind this Trust. It is intent of the Trustor that each Co-Trustee is authorized to act alone in any and all matters concerned with this Trust, and the property transferred herein. Should the Trustor at any time by reason of illness or accident or for any other reason be unable to direct the disposition of the income or principal of the Trust Estate during his lifetime, then in such event, the Co-Trustee shall assume sole Trusteeship of the Trust Estate.

(B) Trustor has appointed and designated his nephew, James R. Severs, as Co-Trustee.

VII.

DISPOSITION OF INCOME AND PRINCIPAL
DURING LIFETIME OF TRUSTOR

During Trustor's lifetime, the Trust shall be administered and distributed as follows:

(A) The Co-Trustees shall distribute to the Trustor or for the Trustor's benefit all of the income of the Trust and such portions of the principal of the Trust as Trustor may from time to time request.

(B) In the event that the Trustor becomes incapacitated to the extent that he is unable to manage his business affairs, the Co-Trustee shall distribute to the incapacitated Trustor or for Trustor's benefit, income and principal in amounts determined by such Co-Trustee to be necessary for the infirmed Trustor's health, education, support, and maintenance to enable Trustor to maintain the standard of living to which he has become accustomed.

VIII.

PAYMENT OF TAXES, DEBTS, AND EXPENSES AFTER TRUSTOR'S DEATH

Upon the death of Trustor, it is Trustor's desire that the Trustee pay from Trustor's residual estate, without apportionment, the expenses of the decedent Trustor's last illness, funeral, and burial expenses, and any estate, inheritance, transfer, succession, and any other taxes plus interest and penalties thereon which become payable by reason of Trustor's death; and any just and legally enforceable debts which may be chargeable against Trustor's properties or against Trustor's estate. If the decedent Trustor's residual estate is insufficient to pay all such amounts, all remaining amounts shall be paid from the Trust Estate without apportionment.

IX.

DISTRIBUTION UPON DEATH

It is the intent of the Trustor that all of his assets and liabilities are and will remain owned by, and under the control of, this Trust. Any failure by Trustor to transfer ownership in any asset to this Trust shall be construed as inadvertent error which the Co-Trustee shall have authority to correct at any time. Upon the death of Trustor, the Co-Trustee shall hold and distribute the decedent Trustor's interest in the Trust Estate as follows:

(A) To my nephew, James R. Severs, of 2900 N.E. Knott, Portland, Oregon, 97212, all of my right, title and interest in and to my real property and improvements thereon legally described in Exhibit B attached hereto.

(B) To my nephew, Richard W. Severs, of 315 S.W. Attwell Road, Stevenson, Washington, all of my right, title and interest in and to my real property described in Exhibit C attached hereto.

(C) All of the rest, residue and remainder of the Trust Estate, including all real, personal and mixed property, shall be distributed to my nephew, James R. Sever, IN TRUST, pursuant to the terms of that Special Needs Trust set forth in Article XV.

TRUSTEE POWERS

(A) With respect to the Living Trust herein created, the Co-Trustees, in addition to all powers conferred by law, shall have the right and power to do all acts, except as herein otherwise specified, in the Trustee's and the Successor Trustee's judgment, needful or desirable for the proper and advantageous management of the Trust Estate, including investment, reinvestment, lending, borrowing, and encumbering Trust assets, without being restricted to statutory investments, to the same extent and with the same effect as might legally be done by an individual in absolute ownership and control of the trust property, subject to the Co-Trustees' obligation to act with the utmost good faith in the interest of the beneficiaries.

(B) All payments of income or principal shall be made to each respective beneficiary in person, upon his or her personal receipt, or may at his or her discretion be deposited in any bank to the credit of such beneficiary in any account carried in his or her name, or jointly with another or others. Payments to an incompetent beneficiary may be made in one or more of the following ways as, in Trustee's opinion, will be most desirable: (1) directly to such beneficiary; (2) to his or her parent or legal representative; (3) to some near relative or friend; or (4) by the Trustee or Successor Trustee using such payment directly for the benefit of such beneficiary. A person shall be deemed "incompetent" if under legal disability, or if incapacitated so as to make it impossible or impracticable to give prompt and intelligent consideration to business matters. The Trustee and/or Successor Trustee may act upon such evidence as they shall deem appropriate and reliable without liability by reason thereof in determining the mental or physical incapacity or legal disability of any beneficiary hereunder.

(C) Income accrued or held undistributed upon the termination of any estate or interest under the Trust shall go to the beneficiaries entitled to the next eventual interest in the proportions in which they take such interest.

(D) The interest of a beneficiary in the principal or income of a share held in the Trust shall not be subject to the claims of their creditors or others, nor to the legal process, and may not be voluntarily or involuntarily anticipated, alienated, or encumbered.

(E) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trust herein provided shall terminate and shall be distributed as if it had then terminated in accordance with its terms, not later in any event than twenty-one (21) years after the death of the Trustor and the Trustor's children.

(F) If any business interest, the stock of any corporation, or any real property, the management of which the Trustor was active at the time of Trustor's death, shall become a part of the Trust Estate, the Trustee and Successor Trustee are hereby authorized to continue to operate or retain such business, business interests, stock, or property for so long as they shall deem such operation or retention to be in the best interest of the Trust herein provided and the beneficiaries thereof, and the Trustee and Successor Trustee shall not be required to sell or otherwise dispose of any such business, business interest, stock, or property, or any part thereof, solely because the retention thereof may prevent adequate diversification of investments or may result in a higher concentration of the value of the Trust Estate in such business, business interest, stock, or property, or any part thereof than the Trustee and Successor Trustee would ordinarily permit; provided, however, that the Trustee and Successor Trustee may, nevertheless, whenever in their absolute discretion they shall deem such action to be to the best interests of the Trust Estate and the beneficiaries thereof, sell or otherwise dispose of such business, business interest, stock or property, or any part thereof, at such times, at such prices, upon such terms and conditions, to such purchasers, and at public or private sale, as they shall deem advisable.

(G) In any event, Trustor desires and directs that this Trust should terminate as soon as practicable after Trustor's death according to the distributions under Article IX.

XI.

TAX ELECTIONS - DEDUCTIONS

The Trustee shall have sole discretion to: (1) claim deductions available to Trustor or to Trustor's estate on inheritance or estate tax returns or on state or federal income tax returns; (2) use date-of-death values or alternate valuation date values for estate tax purposes; and (3) make any other election or decision available under any federal or state tax laws. Any such election or decision may be made regardless of the effect thereof on any beneficiary or on any interest passing under this Trust or otherwise, and without adjustment between income and principal or among beneficiaries.

XII.

LIFE INSURANCE

With respect to life insurance policies wherein this Trust or any Trustee or Successor Trustee, in the capacity as Trustee or Successor Trustee, is the beneficiary of policies owned by Trustor, or the proceeds of all said policies shall be collected by Trustor, or Successor Trustee and held under the terms hereof. The payment to the beneficiary Trustee or Successor Trustee of the proceeds of any such policy of insurance shall be a full discharge of the insurance company on account of said policy, and the discharge of the company shall in no way be responsible for the proper discharge of the Trust or any part thereof. The Trustee and Successor Trustee shall not be required to enter into collection proceedings or institute any litigation to enforce payment of the policies or reasonable provision has been made for the indemnification of the Trustee and Successor Trustee of all of their anticipated expenses and liabilities related to such proceedings.

XIII.

TRUSTEE'S PROVISIONS

A Co-Trustee may resign at any time without the necessity of court approval.

If at any time there should be no Trustee or Successor Trustee of any Trust provided herein, then my brother, Parker Severts, may appoint a Successor Trustee. Appointment shall be by an instrument in writing acknowledged by the appointed Successor Trustee who shall serve with or without bond.

No Trustee or Successor Trustee shall be under any duty to examine, verify, question, or audit the books, records, accounts, or transaction of any preceding Trustee or Successor Trustee; and no Trustee or Successor Trustee shall be liable or responsible in any way for any acts or defaults of any predecessor Trustee or Successor Trustee, nor for any loss or expense from or occasioned by anything done or neglected to be done by any predecessor Trustee. A Trustee or Successor Trustee shall be liable for his or her own acts and defaults.

XIV

INTEROREM CLAUSE

Should any beneficiary under this Trust, including any adverse party in a proceeding for any reason, or challenge any provision of this instrument whatsoever, such beneficiary shall forfeit his or her entire interest hereunder, and such interest shall pass as part of the residue of the estate, provided, however, that if such beneficiary is one of the beneficiaries of the residue, his or her interest shall be divided proportionately among the other beneficiaries of the residue.

XV

SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST

Trustor has created an irrevocable Trust at the time of his death. This Trust shall be known as the Special Needs Trust.

The person constituting the Trustor would like to acknowledge that this Trust is established to provide assistance to the beneficiaries in cases of special needs, which will be identified and determined in the sole discretion of the Trustee. Upon the death of the last surviving beneficiary, it is the intent of the Trustor that all remaining assets in the Trust will be distributed equally between Trustor's nephews, namely James R. Severs, and Richard W. Severs.

The Trustor has created this Trust for the purpose of providing a fund for the special needs of the beneficiaries. It is the Grantor's intention to transfer the entire ownership interest in all assets transferred to the Trustee herein named. Therefore the Trustor assigns to the said Trustee all right, title and interest in the Trust corpus at the time of Trustor's death and relinquishes all administrative power over the Trust corpus and any power to control the beneficial enjoyment of the Trust corpus.

The beneficiaries of this are Trustor's brother and sister-in-law, Parker Severs and Luelladean Severs, for so long as they live. Upon the death of the last surviving beneficiary, all debts and obligations of the Trust shall be paid, and then all remaining Trust assets shall be distributed as follows: one-half to

Trustor's nephew, James R. Severs, and one-half to Trustor's nephew, Richard W. Severs, per stirpes.

During the beneficiaries' lifetimes, the Trustee is authorized to use any income received, as well as the principal or corpus of the Trust to provide for those needs and desires of any beneficiary which the Trustee deems to be appropriate, in the Trustee's sole discretion. This Trust is not intended to provide for the normal day to day needs or support of the beneficiaries. Although the beneficiaries may request or refuse a distribution, the decision of the Trustee shall be binding upon the beneficiaries, and they shall not be authorized by legal action or other process to require the Trustee to take, or refrain from taking, any action, even if such action could be viewed as an abuse of discretion.

Unless sooner terminated in accordance with other provisions of this instrument, all interests not otherwise vested, including, but not limited to, all trusts and powers of appointment created hereunder, including interests created by the exercise of such powers, shall vest twenty-one (21) years after the death of the beneficiary.

The Trustee shall have all the rights, powers, and duties given by law on the date hereof, including those set forth in Article X above.

No powers of the Trustee enumerated herein or hereafter conferred upon Trustee generally shall be constructed to enable the Trustor or the Trustee or any successor Trustee or any person to purchase, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of all or any part of the principal or income of the Trust for less than an adequate consideration in money or money's worth or to enable the Grantor to borrow the principal or any part of the principal or income of the Trust, directly or indirectly, without adequate interest and security. No person, other than the Trustee, shall have or exercise the power to vote or direct the voting of any shares or other securities of the Trust, to control the investments of the Trust either by directing investments or reinvestment or by vetoing proposed investments or reinvestment, or to require or exchange any property in the Trust by substituting other property of an equivalent value.

Anything hereinabove to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee shall not exercise any powers, authority, or discretion if the exercise of such power, authority or discretion would cause the assets of this Trust to be included in the "gross estate" of any of the parties constituting the Grantor as such term is defined in the Internal Revenue Code. The Trustee shall not be held accountable by the beneficiary for any action taken if, in the Trustee's sole determination, such action would not cause inclusion of Trust assets in the gross estate of any party included in the Grantor.

PAGE 8 - REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST AGREEMENT

In the event the Trustee resigns or predeceases the event a Successor Trustee is not so designated, my nephew, Richard W. Severs, shall designate a Trustee.

The designation of additional or successor Trustees shall be accomplished by written direction delivered to the Trust records, all without Court supervision or intervention.

A successor Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of predecessor Trustees, and a successor Trustee shall have no duty to inquire as to the handling of the Trust assets by predecessor Trustees. Any successor Trustee shall have all powers held by the predecessor Trustee.

The interest of a beneficiary hereunder shall not be subject to claims of creditors or others, nor shall such interest be subject to legal process, and such interest may not be voluntarily or involuntarily alienated or encumbered. If, at the time any payments or distributions are due to the beneficiary and the Trustee is aware that the beneficiary creditors are likely to interfere with the beneficiary's enjoyment and use of the payment or distribution, or if there is a judgment against a beneficiary or his or her interest in this Trust, then the Trustee is hereby directed to withhold distribution of either principal or income for the beneficiary for any length of time within the limits of the rule against perpetuities, and apply the same for the beneficiary's benefit when and in such manner as the Trustee deems fit.

No bond or other security shall be required of the Trustee or of any successor Trustee.

This Trust is irrevocable, and neither the Trustor, the Trustee, nor any other person, shall have the right, alone or with any other persons, to alter, amend, revoke or terminate this Trust, in whole or in part, except as provided in this Trust instrument. This instrument may be amended at any time by written document signed by all living persons included as Trustor, provided that no amendment shall have the effect of making the distributions to any party who is a Trustor prior to the death of the beneficiary. The Trustor hereby renounces any interest, either vested or contingent, including any reversionary interest or possibility of reverter in income or principal of this Trust, except as provided herein.

Unless some other meaning and intent is apparent from the context, the plurals of words used herein shall include the singular and vice versa, and the masculine, feminine and neuter words shall be interchangeable.

The provisions of this instrument shall be governed by the laws of the State of Washington. Any provisions hereof which are prohibited by law or unenforceable shall be inoperative and all the remaining provisions hereof shall, nevertheless, be carried into effect.

The Trustor does not intend to displace any source of income otherwise available to the beneficiary for his or her basic support, such as food and shelter, including any governmental assistance program to which the beneficiaries, or one of them, is or may become entitled. This Trust is not intended to be a resource of either beneficiary, and is not available to be a Trust is created for non-support purposes. No part of the corpus or income of this Trust may be used to supplant or replace any public assistance benefits received by or through any county, state, federal or other government agency or authority.
