JURISDICTION

2.1 Jurisdiction is vested in this Court pursuant to 16 U.S.C. § 544m(b)(4).

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

- 3.1 On or about April 11, 2000, Skamania County approved an application submitted by Respondent L'Hommedieus to construct a single-family dwelling.
- 3.2 Under the provisions of the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area, 16 U.S.C. § 544 et seq., final decisions of counties may be appealed to the Columbia River Gorge Commission.
- 3.3 On or about May 2, 2000, Petitioner, Friends of the Columbia Gorge, filed an appeal of the County decision to the Gorge Commission.
- 3.4 After briefing and oral argument, the Commission issued its Final Opinion and Order on October 16, 2000, affirming the County's decision.
- 3.5 Pursuant to Section 15(b)(4) of the Scenic Act, 16 U.S.C. § 544m(b)(4), the final order of the Commission may be challenged by bringing an action in this Court.
- 3.6 The Skamania County land use ordinance for the portion of Skamania County governed by the National Scenic Act, requires that, for parcels visible from a key viewing area, structural development take place in the manner that minimizes visibility.
  - 3.7 The subject parcel is visible from key viewing areas.
- 3.8 The final decision of the County as affirmed by the Gorge Commission allows structural development to take place in a location that does not minimize visibility, in violation of the Skamania County Ordinance and the National Scenic Area Act.
- 3.9 There is not substantial evidence to support the Gorge Commission's determination that the least visible site on the parcel is not buildable.
- 3.10 In its final decision, the Gorge Commission erred in transferring the burden of proof to Petitioner to demonstrate that the least visible site was buildable.

REEVES, LAHN & EDER

3.11 In taking the actions referred to above, the Commission's decision was arbitrary, capricious and should be reversed. WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays for an Order: (a) reversing the Commission's decision and remanding it for entry of an order overturning the County's final decision; (b) awarding Petitioner its costs and disbursements; and (c) any other relief the Court deems just and proper. DATED this 14th day of December, 2000.
