effect and not be limited by any future disability I may have.

1. POWERS

A. The agent shall act on my behalf and for my benefit, and shall have all powers over my estate that I have or acquire. These shall include, but not be limited to, the following: the power to make deposits to, and payments from, any account in my name in any financial institution; the power to open and remove items from any safe deposit box in my name; the power to sell, exchange or transfer title to stocks, bonds or other securities; the power to sell, convey or encumber any real or personal property.

~~B. I specifically authorize the agent to revoke any community property agreement and to transfer any property to my spouse as a gift. (Initial here if revocation of a community property agreement and gifts to a spouse are authorized. Otherwise cross out the whole paragraph B.)~~ TAK

~~C. I specifically authorize the agent to make gifts to the following person: (Initial here if gifts are authorized. Otherwise cross out the whole paragraph C.)~~ TAK

D. The agent shall have all powers over my person necessary or desirable to provide for my support, maintenance, health, or comfort, and shall have access to my medical records.
