- (d) To keep the said property at all times in as good condition as the same now is, reasonable wear and tear excepted.
- (e) To pay regularly and seasonably and before the same shall become delinquent, all taxes, assessments, liens and encumbrances of whatsoever nature and kind which may hereafter be lawfully imposed on said property, and to further provide Seller, upon request, with proof of payment thereof within sixty (60) days after such payment comes due.
- (f) To permit the Seller or their agents to enter into or upon the said property at any reasonable time to inspect the same.

- 7.1 Seller agrees to execute and deliver to Buyer within thirty (30) days after final payment on this contract, a Warranty Deed conveying said property to the Buyer free and clear from all encumbrances except taxes, liens or other encumbrances placed or suffered by Buyer or their successors. Any such deed will also be subject to the encumbrances, liens, and defects specified in the Real Estate Purchase and Sale Agreement previously executed by the parties, or defects specified in the title insurance policy provided for herein.
- 7.2 Seller is at this time procuring and delivering to Buyer a Purchaser's Policy of Title Insurance in standard form, insuring the Buyer to the full amount of said purchase price against loss or damage by reason of defect in Seller's title to said real estate as of the date of closing, and containing no exceptions other than the following:
 - (a) Easements and restrictions of record.
 - (b) Rights reserved in federal patents or state deeds, building or use restrictions general

- (c) Rights of the public in and to that portion lying within any public or county road.
- (d) Encumbrances or defects specified in the title insurance company's standard preprinted title insurance policy form.

SECTION 8. CHANGE IN TITLE OR OCCUPANCY:

The rights to purchase granted by this Real Estate Contract are personal to the Buyer, and Seller's reliance upon Buyer's ability and integrity is a part of the consideration for this contract. Neither this contract, nor any interest herein, nor the possession of the property may be assigned or transferred by the Buyer, nor shall Buyer make or enter into any contract for the sale of the property or any interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Seller. Any attempt at assignment, sale, or transfer of any interest, including possession, by Buyer in violation of the foregoing provisions may, at Seller's option, be deemed a default by Buyer and Seller may, at Seller's option, declare the remaining contract balance, accrued interest and any other sums owing by Buyer to Seller hereunder, immediately due and payable. As an alternative to declaring the remaining contract balance, accrued interest and other sums owing by the Buyer to Seller immediately due and payable, Seller may, at Seller's option, elect to raise the interest rate on this contract to the maximum interest rate allowable by law as a condition to Seller's consent to any sale, assignment, or transfer of Buyer's interest in the subject property or this contract.

SECTION 9. FORFEITURE:

Time is of the essence of this contract and if the Buyer shall fail, refuse or neglect to pay either or any of the installments or interest or any other payment due, or shall fail to keep and/or perform any of the covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the Buyer to be performed, then the Seller may cancel and render void all rights, titles and interest of the Buyer and their successors in this contract and in the real estate which is the subject of this contract by giving a Notice of Intent to Forfeit pursuant to RCW 61.30, and said cancellation and forfeiture shall become effective if the default therein specified has not been fully cured within ninety (90) days thereafter and the Seller records a Declaration of Forfeiture pursuant to RCW 61.30. Upon the forfeiture of this contract, the Seller may retain all payments made hereunder by the Buyer and may take possession of the property ten (10) days following the date this contract is forfeited and summarily eject the Buyer and any person or persons claiming by, through or under the Buyer who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture. In the event the Buyer or any person or persons claiming by, through or under the Buyer who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture remain in possession of the property more than ten (10) days after such forfeiture, the Buyer, or such person or persons, shall be deemed tenants at will of the Seller and the Seller shall be entitled to institute an action for summary possession of the property, and may recover from the Buyer or such person or persons in any such proceedings the fair rental value of the property of the use thereof from and after the date of forfeiture, plus costs, including Seller's reasonable attorneys fees.

SECTION 10. OTHER REMEDIES:

- 10.1 As an alternative to declaring a forfeiture for any such default, Seller may, at Seller's election, bring an action or actions, on any intermediate overdue installment, or on any payment or payments made by the Seller and repayable by the Buyer, it being stipulated and agreed that the covenant to pay intermediate installments or to repay items repayable by the Buyer is independent of the covenant to make a deed; or
- 10.2 Seller may, in the event of such default, at Seller's election, sue for specific performance of Buyer's obligations pursuant to this contract; or
- 10.3 Seller may, in the event of such default, at Seller's election, declare the entire unpaid balance of principal and interest immediately due and payable, and thereupon institute suit for payment of such balance and to have this Real Estate Contract foreclosed as a mortgage as is provided in Section 61.30.020, Revised Code of Washington.
- 10.4 It is agreed that any such action is an action arising on a contract or the recovery of money only, as if the promise to pay had been expressed in a different instrument, and that no such action shall constitute an election not to proceed otherwise as to any subsequent default.

SECTION 11. CONDEMNATION:

In case any part of said real estate is taken for public use, the portion of the condemnation award remaining after payment of reasonable expenses of procuring the same shall be applied first as payment on the purchase price hereunder, with any balance of said award paid to Buyer.

SECTION 12. REPRESENTATIONS:

- 12.1 Buyer has inspected the property sold herein and have found the same to be to her satisfaction and she agrees that no promises, representations, statements, or warranties, expressed or implied, shall be binding on the Seller unless expressly contained herein. Buyer expressly acknowledges that she has placed no reliance whatsoever upon any representations not set forth in this contract. Buyer further acknowledges that she has inspected and is aware that there may be encroachments upon the above-described property and also property line disputes, and Buyer hereby releases Seller from any obligation Seller may otherwise have to Buyer as a result, whether direct or indirect.
- 12.2 Buyer agrees that she has had an opportunity to review all federal, state and local regulations, including but not limited to zoning regulations and standards affecting various permit applications, and the effect such regulations and requirements may have upon the above-described property, including the effect of the same on any prospective and intended use or uses. Buyer further acknowledges that Seller has made no representations concerning any such regulations and standards, including Buyer's ability to obtain a permit for building or other improvements on any or all of the property described herein.

SECTION 13. COURT COSTS AND ATTORNEYS FEES:

If Buyer shall be in default under this contract, the Seller shall have the right, at Buyer's expense, to retain an attorney or collection agency to make any demand, enforce any remedy, including remedies under the Real Estate Contract Forfeiture Act, RCW 61.30, or otherwise protect or enforce her rights under this contract. Buyer hereby promises to pay all expenses and costs so incurred by Seller, with or without arbitration or litigation, which expenses and costs shall include, but not be limited to notice expenses, title search expenses, and reasonable attorneys fees. The failure of Buyer to promptly pay the same shall in itself constitute a further and additional default.

In the event either party hereto institutes any action, including arbitration, to enforce the provisions of this contract, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to reimbursement by the other party for their court costs and reasonable attorneys fees, including the cost of searching the title for the purpose of such action, and any costs and fees that are incurred on appeal.

SECTION 14. WAIVER:

No assent, expressed or implied, by Seller, to any breach of Buyer's covenants or agreements shall be deemed or taken to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of the same or other covenants.

SECTION 15. INTEGRATION:

This contract constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto, supersedes and replaces all prior or existing written and oral agreements between the parties and may not be amended other than in writing signed by all the parties.

SECTION 16. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS:

The provisions of this contract shall be binding on the heirs, successors and assigns of the Seller and the Buyer.
