WHEREAS, Woof Ridge Road presently is serving the property above described for purposes of ingress, egress, and utilities.

1. Annually on the first Monday in April, the owners of all lots in the subdivision obligated to share in the maintenance of the road shall have a meeting to decide what maintenance is required to be performed on the road. - B. The method of assessing costs as set forth above.
- C. The party which shall be responsible for collecting and dispersing the road repair funds.
- D. Fifty-one percent or more of the parties need to approve routine repairs and maintenance to the roadway to keep it in its present condition.
