COMMUNITY PROPERTY AGREEMENT

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

WHEREAS, the undersigned Louis Albert Berge and Ivadeen Karen Berge are husband and wife, and they desire to avail themselves of the provisions of Section 26.16.120 of the Revised Code of Washington, or any successor thereto, and to set forth their agreement as to the status, disposition and succession of property now owned or hereafter acquired by either or both of them.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of their mutual love and affection, and the mutual agreements contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

All of their property, real, personal or mixed, now and hereafter shall be deemed, treated and known as community property, irrespective of how or in whose name such property or any interest therein was acquired or hereafter is acquired. The intent, purpose and effect of this agreement is a voluntary transfer and conveyance from one party to the other and jointly to their community property of all such property, commencing the date hereof.

In the event of the death of either party, the then community estate, whether heretofore existing, or as herein transferred or conveyed, or hereafter acquired, immediately shall vest in fee simple in the survivor of these parties.

If either of the parties shall be declared incompetent by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the competent party hereto, during such incompetency, at his or her election may declare this agreement terminated by executing and recording a instrument to that effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Louis Albert Berge and Ivadeen Karen Berge have executed this agreement this 20th day of March, 1997.
