COMMUNITY PROPERTY AGREEMENT

This AGREEMENT is executed between RICHARD A. LAWTON and JUNE L.

LAWTON, husband and wife, residing in the state of Washington, and hereby terminates, revokes and cancels for all purposes, effective the date indicated below, any and all Community Property

Agreements executed by these parties prior hereto.

1. DECLARATIONS

The parties hereto are husband and wife, and are residents of the state of Washington.

2. CONSIDERATION

FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of the love and affection they each bear toward the other, and in consideration of the mutual help each will be to the other in the future, and for the consideration of the commingling of their joint efforts and earnings and property, it is agreed as herein provided.

3. AMENDMENTS, ETC.

3.1 Amendments. This agreement may be amended or revoked by written instrument executed and acknowledged by the spouses. No such amendment or revocation by mutual consent of the spouses shall become effective except by written revocation or amendment.

3.2 Effect of Domicile Change. Unless otherwise revoked or modified, this agreement shall remain in full force and effect regardless of the state of residence and/or domicile of the spouses at the time of the death of either or both.

3.3 Effect of Incapacity

A. If prior to the death of either spouse a legal guardian is appointed over the property of one of the spouses on account of incapacity, the legal guardian may join with the competent spouse in a petition to the court having jurisdiction over the guardianship proceedings for permission to enter into a modification or revocation of this agreement. Hearing on the petition shall be held after giving such notice to all interested parties as may be ordered by the court. If after the hearing the court deems the proposed modification or revocation to be fair and equitable and affords reasonable protection towards all parties concerned, it may authorize the guardian to execute such modification or revocation on behalf of the incapacitated spouse.

B. If prior to the death of either spouse an attorney-in-fact is authorized according to the terms of a Durable Power of Attorney to have all powers of an absolute owner over the assets and liabilities of one spouse on account of incapacity, the attorney-in-fact for such an incapacitated spouse may enter into an agreement with the competent spouse to modify or revoke this agreement without court approval. Furthermore, if both spouses are incapacitated, then the attorney(s)-in-fact for the incapacitated parties may enter into an agreement to modify or revoke this community property agreement.

4. COMMUNITY PROPERTY

All property, real or personal, now owned, whether separate or community, is hereby conveyed and converted into community property and hereafter shall be deemed community property for all purposes under the laws of the state of Washington.

5. DISPOSITION OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY ON DEATH

The parties recognize that this Agreement confirms the community property nature of their property but does not purport to dispose of their property. Rather, the property of the parties shall pass according to the terms of their Wills.

6. SEPARATE LEGAL ADVICE

The parties acknowledge that ELIZABETH A. PERRY is their joint attorney and that this document has been prepared at their direction. ELIZABETH A. PERRY has advised the parties that they should each receive advice from separate attorneys with respect to the legal effect of this Agreement on their individual rights prior to signing.
