The date of maturity of the debt secured by this instrument is the date on which the final installment of said note becomes due and payable. To protect the security of this Deed of Trust, grantor covenants and agrees:

- 1) To keep the property in good condition and repair; to permit no waste thereof; to complete any building, structure or improvement being built or about to be build thereon; to restore promptly any building, structure, or improvement thereon which may be damaged or destroyed; and to comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting the property.

Such application by the beneficiary shall not cause discontinuance of any proceedings to foreclose this Deed of Trust. In the event of foreclosure, all rights of the grantor in insurance policies then in force shall pass to the purchaser at the foreclosure sale.
- 4) To defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of beneficiary or trustee, and to pay all costs and expenses, including the cost of title search and attorney's fees in a reasonable amount in any such action or proceeding, and in any suit brought by beneficiary to foreclose this Deed of Trust.

- 2) By accepting payment of any sum secured hereby after its due date, beneficiary does not waive its right to require prompt payment when due of all other sums so secured or to declare default for failure to pay.
- 3) The trustee shall reconvey all or any part of the property covered by this Deed of Trust to the person entitled thereto, on written request of the grantor and the beneficiary, or upon satisfaction of the obligation secured and written request for reconveyance made by the beneficiary or the person entitled thereto.

In such event and upon written request of beneficiary, trustee shall sell the property, in accordance with the Deed of Trust Act of the State of Washington, at public auction to the highest bidder. Any person except trustee may bid at trustee's sale. Trustee shall apply the proceeds of the sale as follows: (1) to the expense of the sale, including a reasonable trustee's fee and attorney's fee; (2) to the obligation secured by this Deed of Trust; (3) the surplus, if any, shall be distributed to the persons entitled thereto.
- 5) Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed, without warranty, which shall convey the interest in the property which grantor had or the power to convey at the time of his execution of this Deed of Trust, and such as he may have acquired thereafter. Trustee's deed shall recite the facts showing that the sale was conducted in compliance with all the requirements of law and of this Deed of Trust which shall be prima facie evidence of such compliance and conclusive evidence thereof in favor of bona fide purchaser and encumbrancers for value.
