KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, Charles E. Boucher and Patricia A. Boucher, husband and wife, residing in the town of Willard, County of Skamania, State of Washington, on this 1st day of April, 1968 for and in consideration of the love and affection which we bear, one toward the other, and, further, in consideration of the mutual helpfulness we have been, one toward the other in the past, and for and in consideration of the commingling of our joint efforts and earnings and properties heretofore, we do hereby mutually agree, one with the other, that all of the property which we now own, separately, jointly, or otherwise, whether real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind, or character, and wheresoever located or situated, together with all property which we, or either of us, may acquire in the future, whether real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind or character <sup>P.A.B. C.E.B.</sup> and wheresoever located or situated, shall be by us and all other persons whomsoever, deemed, esteemed, regarded and treated and known as the community property of Charles E. Boucher and Patricia A. Boucher, husband and wife.

In this agreement so made, one with the other, the date acquiring property and all statements made by either or both of us heretofore respecting alleged separate property or affecting any property, are to be regarded and esteemed as of no force and effect.

The full intent and purpose of this instrument is to be construed by the Court, our heirs, executors and assigns and all other persons whomsoever, <sup>P.A.B. C.E.B.</sup> as a present voluntary conveyance and conversion, from one to the other, and unitedly to the community of all of our earthly possessions, in such form and manner that the same shall from this date, be and constitute the property of the community of ourselves as husband and wife, so that we might avail ourselves of the provisions of R.C.W. 26.16.120 concerning agreements between husband and wife, fixing the status and disposition of community property to take effect upon the death of either.
