THEDA J. BENNETTINDIVIDUAL GENERAL DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

THE UNDERSIGNED INDIVIDUAL, domiciled and residing in the state of Washington, hereby revokes any and all Powers of Attorney relating to financial matters executed by the principal previous to this date, and the principal hereby designates the following-named person(s) as attorney-in-fact to act for the undersigned as the principal who may hereafter become incapacitated.

1. Designations. DAVID A. BENNETT is designated as attorney-in-fact for the principal. If for any reason DAVID A. BENNETT is unable or unwilling to act as attorney-in-fact, TERESA L. BUCKMILLER is designated as alternate attorney-in-fact for the principal.

2. Power to Appoint Special Attorney-in-Fact. The attorney-in-fact shall have the authority to appoint a special attorney-in-fact to exercise one or more of the powers set forth herein. Such appointment shall be in writing and shall set forth the authority granted to the special attorney-in-fact (including the date of termination of such powers, if any).

3. Nomination of Guardian of Estate. Said attorney-in-fact is hereby nominated guardian of the estate if protective proceedings for the principal are hereafter commenced.

4. Powers. The attorney-in-fact, as fiduciary, shall have all powers of an absolute owner over the assets and liabilities of the principal, whether located within or without the state of Washington and power to contract for the principal. In addition to the powers listed above, the attorney-in-fact shall have the power:

(a) Management. To take possession of, manage, administer, operate, maintain, improve and control all property, real and personal; to insure and keep the same insured; and to pay any and all taxes, charges and assessments that may be levied or imposed upon any thereof.

(b) Collections. To collect and receive any money, property, debts or claims whatsoever, now or hereafter due, owing and payable or belonging to the principal; and to forgive debts; and to give receipts, acquittance or other sufficient discharges for any of the same.

(c) Checks and Notes. To sign, endorse, sell, discount, deliver and/or deposit checks, drafts, notes and negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments, including any payments to the principal drawn on the Treasury of the United States or the state of Washington or any other state or governmental entity, and to accept drafts.

(d) Investments. To retain any property in the hands of the attorney-in-fact in the form in which it was received; to establish accounts; and to make investments and changes of investments in such securities, including common and preferred stocks of corporations or other property, real or personal, as the principal's attorney-in-fact may deem prudent.

(e) Debts. To pay debts and other obligations; and to obtain information with respect to any debts.

(f) Litigation. To sue upon, defend, compromise, submit to arbitration or adjust any controversies in which the principal may be interested; and to act in the principal's name in any complaints, proceedings or suits with all the powers principal would possess if personally present and under no legal disability.

(g) Acquisition. To bargain for, buy and deal in real and personal property and goods of every description.

(h) Specific Real Property Rights. To exercise the principal's rights with respect to all real property, including, but not limited to, the right to hold, manage, lease, develop, subdivide, sell and encumber real property owned by the principal.

(i) Disposition. To sell, convey, grant, exchange, transfer, option, convert, mortgage, convey by deed of trust, pledge, consign, lease and otherwise dispose of any of the principal's property, whether real or personal, including, but not limited to, personal guarantees and unsecured borrowing on the principal's behalf.

(j) Borrowing. To advance or loan the attorney-in-fact's own funds on the principal's behalf; and to borrow any sums of money on such terms and at such rate of interest as the principal's attorney-in-fact may deem proper and to give security for the repayment of the same.

(k) Agreements. To make and deliver any deeds, conveyances, contracts, covenants and other instruments, undertakings or agreements, either orally or in writing, which the attorney-in-fact may deem proper.

(l) Voting. To appear and vote in person or by proxy at any corporate or other meeting.

(m) Safe Deposit Box. To have access to any safe deposit box which has been rented in the name of the principal or in the names of the principal and any other person or persons.

(n) Withdrawal of Funds. To withdraw any monies deposited with any bank, mutual savings bank, credit union, savings and loan association, mutual fund, money market account, investment advisor or broker in the name of the principal or in the names of the principal and any other person or persons and generally to do any business with any such financial institution or agency on behalf of the principal.

(o) Tax Returns. To sign and file all city, county, state, federal and other governmental or quasi-governmental tax returns or reports, including income, gift, sales, business, and property tax returns or reports of every kind whatsoever; to execute waivers, extension agreements, settlement agreements and closing agreements with respect to those returns and to appear for the principal, in person or by attorney, and to represent the principal before the United States Treasury Department or the Washington Department of Revenue or the taxing authority of any other state or governmental entity. This authority shall include the authority to execute IRS Form 2848 and any other power of attorney forms that will enable the attorney-in-fact to act on behalf of the principal with respect to federal and state tax matters.

(p) Government Benefits. To do and perform every act necessary or desirable and to serve as representative payee with respect to rights and entitlements from Social Security, Medicare and military service.

(q) Treasury Bonds. To purchase U.S. Treasury bonds or other instruments redeemable at par in payment of federal estate taxes.

(r) Limited Partnerships. To have the power to cause the principal to become a general and/or limited partner in a limited partnership and to transfer assets of the principal to such partnership in return for units in the limited partnership.

(s) Trusts. To create a trust on behalf of the principal; to amend any trust the principal is entitled to amend by its terms; to transfer property owned by the principal to any trust, whether or not created by the principal; to make such withdrawals from the trust as the principal is entitled to make by the terms of the trust; and to exercise the principal's rights to distribute property in trust or cause a trustee to distribute property in trust to the extent consistent with the terms of the trust instrument. Provided, such creation, amendments, transfers and withdrawals may be made only with the unanimous consent of those children of the principal who are then living and legally competent. The principal intends to grant the above-stated powers irrespective of any provision of Title 11 of the Revised Code of Washington (including, but not limited to, RCW 11.95.100 and 11.95.110) that would otherwise restrict the power of an attorney-in-fact in so acting in favor of such attorney-in-fact. The attorney-in-fact shall not breach any fiduciary duty to the principal by reason of so acting (including in favor of such attorney-in-fact) or not acting in good faith.

(t) Disclaim Property. To disclaim or renounce any interest or power on behalf of the principal, including but not limited to any interest as that term is defined under RCW 11.86.011, and whether or not such disclaimer or renunciation is qualified as such under the provisions of Section 2518 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and RCW Chapter 11.86.

(u) Beneficiary Designation. To make, alter, amend or revoke the beneficiary designation, and make any other election with respect to any of the principal's life insurance policies, employee benefit plans, individual retirement accounts, annuities or similar assets. Provided, such designation of, altering, amending or revoking may be made only with the unanimous consent of those children of the principal who are then living and legally competent. The principal intends to grant the above-stated powers irrespective of any provision of Title 11 of the Revised Code of Washington (including, but not limited to, RCW 11.95.100 and 11.95.110) that would otherwise restrict the power of an attorney-in-fact in so acting in favor of such attorney-in-fact. The attorney-in-fact shall not breach any fiduciary duty to the principal by reason of so acting (including in favor of such attorney-in-fact) or not acting in good faith.

(v) Gifts. To make gifts of property owned by the principal to or for the benefit of one or more of the principal's children and other lawful descendants. Provided, such gifts may be made only with the unanimous consent of those children of the principal who are then living and legally competent. The principal intends to grant the above-stated powers irrespective of any provision of Title 11 of the Revised Code of Washington (including, but not limited to, RCW 11.95.100 and 11.95.110) that would otherwise restrict the power of an attorney-in-fact in so acting in favor of such attorney-in-fact. The attorney-in-fact shall not breach any fiduciary duty to the principal by reason of so acting (including in favor of such attorney-in-fact) or not acting in good faith.

(w) Business Interests. To continue as a going concern any business interest owned by the principal, either individually or as a co-partner.

(x) Guardian Ad Litem. To waive, on behalf of the principal, the right to have a guardian ad litem appointed to protect the interest of the principal in any court proceeding if the attorney-in-fact deems that the principal's interests are otherwise adequately protected.

(y) Substitution and Delegation. To appoint and substitute for said attorney-in-fact any attorneys-in-fact, nominees or attorneys to exercise any or all of the powers herein and to revoke their authority.

(z) General Authority. To do and perform all and every act and thing necessary or desirable to conduct, manage and control all of principal's business and property, wheresoever situate, and whether now owned or hereafter acquired, as the principal's attorney-in-fact may deem for the principal's best interests and to execute and acknowledge any and all instruments necessary or proper to carry out the foregoing powers, hereby releasing all third persons from responsibility for the attorney-in-fact's acts and omissions and the principal empowers the attorney-in-fact to indemnify all such persons against loss, expense and liability.

(aa) Change of Estate Plan. To have the power to revoke or change any estate planning or testamentary document executed by the principal upon receiving court approval for such change or revocation, unless such revocation or change is authorized above.

5. Purposes. The attorney-in-fact shall have full powers to provide for the support, maintenance, emergencies and necessities for the incapacitated principal.

6. Duration. The durable power of attorney becomes effective as provided herein, notwithstanding any uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive.

7. Effectiveness. This power of attorney shall be effective immediately and shall not be affected by the incapacity of the principal.

8. Revocation. This power of attorney may be revoked, suspended or terminated in writing by the principal with written notice to the designated attorney-in-fact. In addition, if this power of attorney has been recorded, the written instrument of revocation shall be recorded in the office of the recorder or auditor of any county in which the power of attorney is recorded.

9. Termination

(a) By Appointment of Guardian. The appointment of a guardian of the estate of the principal vests in the guardian, with court approval, the power to revoke, suspend or terminate this power of attorney. The appointment of a guardian of the person only does not empower the guardian to revoke, suspend or terminate this power of attorney.

(b) By Death of Principal. The death of the principal shall be deemed to revoke this power of attorney upon actual knowledge or actual notice being received by the attorney-in-fact.

10. Accounting. The attorney-in-fact shall be required to account to any subsequently appointed personal representative.

11. Reliance. Any person dealing with the attorney-in-fact shall be entitled to rely upon this power of attorney so long as such person has received no actual knowledge or actual notice of any revocation, suspension or termination of the power of attorney by death or otherwise at the time of any act taken pursuant to this power of attorney. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, shall be binding on the heirs, devisees, legatees or personal representatives of the principal.

12. Indemnity. The estate of the principal shall hold harmless and indemnify the attorney-in-fact from all liability for acts done in good faith and not in fraud of the principal.

13. Applicable Law. The laws of the state of Washington, as amended, shall govern this power of attorney.

14. Definitions

(a) The term "attorney-in-fact" as used herein shall be deemed to mean "co-attorneys-in-fact" or "successor attorney-in-fact" when such are functioning as the attorney-in-fact appointed by this document.

(b) The term "special attorney-in-fact" as used herein shall mean an attorney-in-fact who is not related to or subordinate to the principal as such terms are defined under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

15. Reimbursement. The attorney-in-fact shall be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred on the principal's behalf in exercising the powers granted herein and to remuneration for time expended on behalf of the principal.

This power of attorney is signed this 26th day of December, 2013, to become effective as provided herein.
