

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL DEPUTY AND OATH OF OFFICE

KNOW ALL PERSONS:

That I, Adam N. Kick, Prosecuting Attorney for Skamania County, State of Washington, have this day, pursuant to RCW 36.27.040, appointed Pam Loginsky WSBA No. 18096, of the Washington Association of Prosecuting Attorneys, my true and lawful Special Deputy for the limited purpose of:

Providing legal advice as required by RCW 36.27.020(1) or (2) to the Skamania County Board of County Commissioners with respect to RCW 4.96.041(3) regarding a request by any elective officer that the legislative authority approve the payment of a special deputy at County expense for the defense of any elective officer named in the recall petition filed by Matthew L'Hommedieu, and furthermore to approve, if appropriate, such a request, as counsel for the Skamania County Board of County Commissioners.

Pam Loginsky may only perform additional tasks, services or duties with my express written authorization.

This appointment shall commence on May, 28, 2020, and shall continue until the conclusion of services as described above, except as follows:

This appointment was made pursuant to Herron v. McClanahan, 28 Wn. App. 552 (1981), to address a conflict of interest. If the services described above have not been concluded, I may only refuse to reappoint Pam Loginsky at the beginning of any subsequent term of office for cause and with the permission of the superior court. If the services described above have not been concluded, I may only revoke the appointment for cause and only with the permission of the superior court.

The conflict necessitating the appointment of Pam Loginsky is office wide. Pam Loginsky, subject to the limitations of RPC 1.2, is the final decision maker with respect to these services.

With this appointment I give Pam Loginsky full power and authority to do and act in my name the same as I would in law be empowered to do if personally present for the expressed purposes described above.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunder set my hand this 27th day of May, 2020.

Adam N. Kick, WSBA# 27525
