IMPORTANT NOTICE: Washington law (RCW 9A.02.010) requires that an affidavit or oath of labor performed must be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county where such claim is situated within 90 days after the expiration of the period of time fixed for the performance of annual labor or the making of improvements. This should be done by the owner of the claim. Failure to do so may result in the claim being forfeited to the State of Washington. The owner of the claim should also be aware that the law requires the owner to file a notice of intention to hold a mining claim, under federal law, you can perform annual assessment work labor instead of paying annual maintenance fees. If you satisfy the qualifications for a maintenance fee waiver, including filing a certified statement of maintenance fee waiver with the BLM. Additional regulations of the BLM, the Forest Service and the State of Washington may apply to the conducting of mining operations in Washington.
